

Art Hike for Tick Bite Awareness

AH4TBA

Sunday June 24th, 2018; 1-4 pm
Indian Island Park, Riverhead NY

Rain Date: Sunday July 22nd, 2018; 1-4 pm

WWW.TICKWISE.ORG

Brought to you by: April Nill-Boitano, MEd, President of Tick Wise Education

Brian Kelly, President of East End Tick & Mosquito & poster contest originator Legislator Bridget Fleming

Winners of the 2018 Tick Bite Safety Poster Contest will be

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" – Benjamin Franklin

- Come and see the children's artwork! Winners from the 2018 annual Tick Bite Safety and Awareness Poster Contest will be displayed!
- Free family friendly event - open to the public!
- A short hike through beautiful Indian Island park in Riverhead will feature winning posters in the park kiosks and honorable mention posters displayed along a 30 minute hiking trail.
- Learn tick bite prevention strategies from the local experts. Education on prevention is at the beginning of the trail, volunteers help check for ticks at the end of the trail.
- Come and examine the ticks under a microscope!
- Ticks are tiny arachnids that can potentially cause big problems. Learn proper tick removal - come empower yourself through education!

